you can earn cash back for your shopping and rack up points as you surf the internet as you would do anyway swagbucks is a well established brand and the company sends thousands of gift cards each day with over 320 million already paid to its user base i am going to try these to make money and get gift cards the main one you did for the 25 i don t qualify some of the others i have signed up for i haven t used but that is going to change thank you very much they also offer a rare cash back option for purchasing in certain categories on amazon s mobile site along with offers from other retailers for the pets category right now the rebate is 3 and that s certainly better than nothing i just purchased a cleaning kit for ugg boots through the ibotta app and will be receiving 15 cash back on my 25 00 purchase the possibilities to receive money back by shopping in store and online are really nice with this app
